

Subject Complements

Part A - Directions: Underline the subject complement in each sentence. Indicate if it is an adjective or a noun. An adjective is a quality. A noun is a thing or a person.

1. This is easy. (adjective / noun)
2. The car is red. (adjective / noun)
3. My teacher is a man. (adjective / noun)
4. Carla feels sick today. (adjective / noun)
5. There's a big hole in the ground. (adjective / noun)
6. Where is the supermarket? (adjective / noun)
7. That's it. (adjective / noun)
8. These roses look beautiful. (adjective / noun)
9. Minnesota is a state in the United States. (adjective / noun)
10. Are you okay? (adjective / noun)

Part B - Directions: Provide a subject complement in the following sentences. Indicate if is an adjective or a noun.

1. My classroom is _____. (adjective / noun)
2. The dishes are _____. (adjective / noun)
3. My teacher's name is _____. (adjective / noun)
4. The air temperature today is _____. (adjective / noun)
5. Today he seems _____. (adjective / noun)
6. I am _____. (adjective / noun)
7. Are you _____? (adjective / noun)
8. Where is _____? (adjective / noun)
9. This exercise is _____. (adjective / noun)
10. Something smells _____. (adjective / noun)