

demonstrative pronouns: this, that, these, those

Part A. Choose between “this” or “these.”

1. _____ are very good crackers.
2. Is _____ a good movie?
3. Whose coat is _____?
4. _____ tastes terrible!
5. _____ students are doing great work!
6. Are _____ pants too long?
7. _____ lemonade is too sweet.
8. The battery in _____ phone is dead.
9. Were _____ chips any good?
10. Whose shoes are _____?

Part B. Choose between “this” or “that.”

1. _____ movie we saw last week was good.
2. _____ water has a funny smell. (I’m holding a glass in my hand.)
3. Was _____ pizza you ordered any good?
4. Do you want _____ one or _____ one?
5. Look at _____ over there!

Part C. Choose between “that” or “those.”

1. _____ cars are very expensive.
2. Is _____ car on sale?
3. _____ were the good old days.
4. Are _____ the mittens you wanted?
5. What is _____ over there?
6. Please hand me _____ towels.
7. Whose are _____?
8. _____ humus is nice and creamy.
9. How much are _____ bananas?
10. Where is _____ spatula?

Part D. Choose between “these” or “those.”

1. How much are _____ chairs over there?
2. Why are _____ clothes still wet?
3. _____ peanuts are very salty.
4. Where are _____ socks you bought yesterday?
5. _____ onions were not very good.