

Coordinating Conjunctions

Part A - Directions: Choose the correct coordinating conjunction for each sentence:

and, but, or

1. Tom _____ Sarah are coming to our house this weekend.
2. I need to make a call, _____ I don't have my phone on me.
3. You can have chocolate _____ vanilla, _____ you can't have both.
4. The kids want to go outside, _____ it's raining too hard.
5. The color orange is made by combining red _____ yellow.
6. Either Bill _____ Kevin is working the afternoon shift.
7. Our bus usually arrives on time, _____ today it's late.
8. This book is ripped on the front _____ back cover.
9. We can drive to Detroit, _____ we can take a bus to get there.
10. Kathy is usually very nice, _____ I just heard her yell at her neighbor.

Part B - Directions: Choose the correct coordinating conjunction for each sentence:

so, yet, for, nor

1. I've never met Mary before, _____ there's something familiar about her.
2. John avoids driving on the highway, _____ it takes him longer to get to work.
3. The police officer did something that was neither professional _____ legal.
4. We need more money, _____ I got a second job.
5. You must make the best of what you have, _____ you have just one life to live.
6. Cindy said she was sick, _____ she's still going out with her friends tonight.
7. Our refrigerator died, _____ we went out and bought a new one.
8. Tony doesn't have a job, _____ does he want one.
9. All members of the team trained hard, _____ they were determined to win.
10. The team was determined to win the championship, _____ they trained hard for it.