

Part A. Directions: Write the reflexive pronoun that matches the subject.

1. He hurt _____ while cutting down a tree.
2. We enjoyed _____ at the party.
3. Maria taught _____ how to read.
4. The students completed the lesson by _____.
5. I would like to work for _____.
6. You can figure that out for _____.
7. That broken machine is not going to fix _____.
8. We have only _____ to blame for this terrible situation.
9. People take pictures of _____ with their cell phones.
10. You should be very proud of _____ for completing your degree.

Part B. Directions: Write the intensive pronouns that match the subject.

1. Queen Mary _____ will be here today.
2. A job well done is a reward in _____.
3. I will take care of this situation _____.
4. Barack Obama _____ will make an appearance at the rally.
5. You (plural) _____ are responsible for completing the assignments.
6. We _____ had to clean up the mess left behind.
7. You (singular) _____ said this was not a good idea, but then you did it anyway.
8. Everyone was late for the meeting. I was late _____.
9. The supervisors _____ did the work when the workers went on strike.
10. The only way to make sure the work is finished is for you to do it _____.

Part C. Directions: Write an answer that includes a reflexive pronoun for each question.

1. A: Who made breakfast for him?

B: No one. He _____.

2. A: Who is she sitting with?

B: Nobody. She _____.

3. A: Did someone buy that for you?

B: No. I _____.

4. A: Who taught her how to play the piano?

B: She _____.

5. A: Do I need to turn off the machine?

B No. It _____.