

Directions: Read each situation and then add a natural response using “go” and another verb that fits the situation. Answers are on the following page.

1. We don't have any eggs.

I need to _____ some eggs.

2. Harold can't find his shoes anywhere.

He needs to _____ his shoes.

3. Do you want to go out to eat tonight or see a movie.

Let's _____ a movie. It's cheaper than eating out.

4. Is Ronnie playing with his friends today?

Yes, he went to _____ soccer.

5. Are you hungry?

Yes, let's _____.

6. Those people look like they need help moving their car.

Let's _____ them.

7. We need to think carefully about where we want to live.

That's right. It's not smart to just _____ a house without a plan.

8. Are you going anywhere?

Yes, I'm going to _____ some errands.

9. Where is Don?

He said he was going to _____ dinner for himself.

10. Did you remember to buy bread at the store?

No, I'll have to _____ some bread tomorrow.

Answers are on the next page.

1. We don't have any eggs.

I need to go get some eggs.

2. Harold can't find his shoes anywhere.

He needs to go find his shoes.

3. Do you want to go out to eat tonight or see a movie.

Let's go see a movie. It's cheaper than eating out.

4. Is Ronnie playing with his friends today?

Yes, he went to go play soccer.

5. Are you hungry?

Yes, let's go eat.

6. Those people look like they need help moving their car.

Let's go help them.

7. We need to think carefully about where we want to live.

That's right. It's not smart to just go buy a house without a plan.

8. Are you going anywhere?

Yes, I'm going to go run some errands.

9. Where is Don?

He said he was going to go make dinner for himself.

10. Did you remember to buy bread at the store?

No, I'll have to go buy some bread tomorrow.